

EMAIL DISCLAIMER

This email disclaimer applies to all emails sent by or to First Technology Investments (Pty) Ltd or any of its Affiliates ("Affiliate" means any subsidiary of First Technology Investments (Pty) Ltd, or any division or operating branch of each subsidiary and all of its subsidiaries) ("Company") and shall at all times take precedence over any other e-mail disclaimer(s).

The information contained in this electronic message is confidential and may be legally privileged. It is intended solely for the use of the recipient (individual or entity) to whom the Company has addressed the electronic message to and others authorised by the Company to receive it. If you are not the intended recipient you are hereby notified that any disclosure, copying, distribution or taking action in reliance of the contents of this information is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you are not the intended recipient of this e-mail (or such person's authorised representative), then please notify the sender of this e-mail immediately by return e-mail or telephone and delete this message from your system. You may not print, store, forward or copy this message or any part thereof or disclose or cause information in this message to be disclosed to any other person. The Company is not liable for the improper or incomplete transmission of the information contained in this electronic message, or for any delay in its receipt.

The Company retains all intellectual property rights in any information contained in e-mail messages (or any attachments thereto) which relates to the official business of the Company or of any of its affiliates. Such information may be legally privileged, is to be treated as confidential and the Company will take legal steps against any unauthorised use.

While the Company will take reasonable precautions, it cannot ensure that this e-mail will be free of errors, viruses, interception or interference therewith. The Company is not liable for any harm or loss resulting from malicious software code or viruses in this e-mail or its attachments, including data corruption resulting therefrom. Any advice or information contained in this e-mail may also be subject to any formal agreement between us.

In accordance with the ECTA, an e-mail is only deemed to be received by the Company once the Company acknowledges receipt thereof. The Company will be deemed to have sent an e-mail once reflected as sent on the Company e-mail server. An auto-reply shall not constitute a response for the purposes hereof. If an email message contains offensive, derogatory or defamatory statements or materials, it means the message has been sent outside the sender's scope of employment with the Company and only the sender can be held liable in his/her personal capacity.

The Company respects your privacy and acknowledges that this e-mail may contain personal details, which may belong to you, others and/or to your company (personal information). By communicating with the Company via email communication, you expressly give the Company consent to process and further process the personal information in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act (4 of 2013), the Company's Data Privacy and Security Policy (a copy of which is available on written request), and any other formal agreement between you and the Company.

This e-mail disclaimer shall be governed by the law of South Africa. Any dispute arising from or in connection with this disclaimer shall be resolved at Sandton, Johannesburg in accordance with the Rules of the Arbitration Foundation of Southern Africa by an independent appointed arbitrator.
